

Greetings from GKCEM!!

To share joy and happiness during Diwali, the festival of lights, with the less privileged section of the society, gift hampers containing fruits, biscuits, chocolates, sweets and other goodies were distributed to children and senior residents of Baruiপুর Sitakundu Sneha Kunja (BSSK), an NGO in Baruiপুর. This NGO runs two residential homes for orphan boys and girls alongwith an old age home and provides shelter, food, education and vocational training to their wards to help them achieve a dignified future.

The gift hampers were distributed by Dr. Debayan Mandal (Principal, Actg.), Prof. Krishna Das Mazumdar (HOD, ECE Deptt.) and Ms. Suranjana Sen (Sr. Manager, Marketing). The children presented a nice collage of performances comprising of music, dance, recitation etc. As a very touching token of appreciation, the children also gifted a set of diyas, nicely painted by them, to GKCEM.

GKCEM management thanks Ms. Uttara Roy, Secretary of BSSK, Baruiপুর for extending excellent cooperation and support.

Some photographs taken during the gift presentation are appended.

